TeamMates mentoring event comes to MCC

OMAHA, Neb. — Metropolitan Community College and the TeamMates Mentoring Program is hosting a mentor informational event on Monday, May 19, 11:30 a.m.—1 p.m., at the Fort Omaha Campus, 30th and Fort Streets, Building 22, Room 201A.

More than 100 TeamMates mentors will be on-hand to learn about different programs that MCC can offer their mentees, tour the MCC Institute for the Culinary Arts and hear from TeamMates founder Dr. Tom Osborne and MCC president, Randy Schmailzl.

“This event is an excellent opportunity for mentors to get to know MCC to help inspire their mentees with educational goals,” said Tracy McTavish-Mlady, institutional effectiveness coordinator at MCC.

As part of the event, MCC faculty and staff interested in becoming a mentor will be able to learn about what it takes to become one and how they can provide guidance to mentees.

Founded by Tom and Nancy Osborne, TeamMates works to positively impact youth and encourage them to reach their full potential. TeamMates currently has more than 7,000 youth in 117 communities across Nebraska, Iowa and California.
