WordCamp Omaha to bring ideas, innovation to attendees

OMAHA, Neb. — Metropolitan Community College is hosting WordCamp Omaha Saturday, Aug. 9, 8:30 a.m.–4 p.m., and Sunday, Aug. 10, 10 a.m.–1 p.m., at the Swanson Conference Center inside the Institute for the Culinary Arts, 32nd and Sorensen Parkway.

Entrepreneurs, small business owners or those looking to further their knowledge in website publishing skills are invited. The two-day event will feature guest speakers on all things WordPress, the free and open personal publishing software source that powers over 75 million websites.

Topics include using WordPress to build brands, WordPress themes and quality support for customers, among others. Attendees will also have the opportunity to ask WordPress experts questions regarding the free software in an open forum.

Tickets for the event are $40 and can be purchased at <http://2014.omaha.wordcamp.org/>. Cost of the ticket includes a T-shirt, continental breakfast and lunch as well as access to the post-event party.

Metropolitan Community College, accredited by the Higher Learning Commission, is a comprehensive, public community college that offers affordable, quality education to all residents of Dodge, Douglas, Sarpy and Washington counties. Founded in 1974, MCC has the largest enrollment out of six community colleges in Nebraska and is the second largest postsecondary institution in the state. MCC serves more than 40,000 unique credit and noncredit students.
