The Nebraska Logistics Council awards MCC endowed scholarship

OMAHA, Neb. — Metropolitan Community College has been awarded an endowed scholarship from the Nebraska Logistics Council. The scholarship will go toward supporting students in transportation, distribution and logistics programs.

MCC will formally receive the scholarship during a special presentation at the Nebraska Logistics Council golf tournament at 11:30 a.m. today at Tregaron golf course in Bellevue. Members of the Nebraska Logistics Council and the Nebraska Trucking Association will present MCC a check. Members of the media are invited to attend.

The scholarship is being established with the MCC Foundation. It will help the College educate and train tomorrow's workforce in the transportation, distribution and logistics industries, projected to grow much faster than average, according to the U.S. Department of Labor.
