Original Works @ MCC Showcase combines art, science and other programs

OMAHA, Neb. — The Institute for Cultural Connections at Metropolitan Community College will recognize students for their achievements in original works Wednesday, April 22, 1–6 p.m. in the Connector Building at the College's South Omaha Campus, 27th and Q streets.

The Original Works @ MCC Showcase will display works of art as well as original works from science programs, photography, graphic design, automotive and more. Students will be present to discuss their pieces throughout the first and second floor of the Connector Building, with science exhibits on display from 1 to 2 p.m.

A reception will be held on the second floor from 4 to 6 p.m. to help celebrate the students' original works.
